

Global singularity theory for the Gauss curvature equation

Graham Andrew Craig Smith

Abstract. We study the structure of the singularity sets of weak solutions to the Plateau problem for gaussian curvature. We show that these sets consist of convex hulls of subsets of the boundary. This allows us to take a geometric approach to the construction of smooth solutions.